

PEOPLE & CULTURE ADMINISTRATIVE APPRENTICE

We are the behavioural planning agency.

At the top, where it should be:

At Total Media we are committed to Diversity & Inclusion and providing equal opportunities for everyone. We are dedicated to ensuring our processes are free from any form of discrimination or bias, right from the application process to life as part of the Total Media Team!

A bit about us

Total Media is a leading independent and international media agency that connects people to brands. Our media strategies are based on people's behaviours – understanding how audiences think, feel and act – so that we reach them contextually, during the moments that matter.

We work across the full spectrum of media planning and buying, with fantastic media teams dedicated to client servicing, broadcast, publishing, digital, data and content production. We also have several talented operational teams at Total Media who keep everything running smoothly.

The role

We are looking for a diligent and enthusiastic person to join our close team of three, providing key administrative support for our People & Culture department. As we are looking for an apprentice, the successful candidate will be given 20% of their working hours to dedicate to their studies.

What we're looking for

This is an ideal opportunity for someone enthusiastic and organised with great interpersonal skills who enjoys solving problems and getting stuck in.

This role will provide crucial support to the day to day running of the People and Culture Team and the successful candidate will provide administrative support across a wide range of projects.

Timekeeping, organisation and attention to detail will be key to this role. You will be building strong relationships with people at all levels across our UK offices, so strong communication skills are essential. You will also be privy to some sensitive information and employee data, therefore discretion and professionalism is a must.

Meet the hiring manager

Having started out at Total Media as an apprentice herself, Kitty is now working as our P&C Advisor and is looking for someone to assist with many important administrative tasks and the delivery of some projects.

As this is an entry level role, we know experience isn't everything but we really want to meet candidates who are organised, meticulous and above all enthusiastic!

The benefits

Pension

Once you've been with us for 3 months you'll be enrolled into our pension scheme. We'll match your contributions up to 5%.

Private Medical Insurance, healthcare and life assurance

When you've passed your probation, you have the opportunity to use our private medical insurance, healthcare and life assurance schemes.

Referral scheme

Know a fantastic candidate for Total Media? We pay a bonus of £1,000 to any eligible member of staff who introduces an applicant who is employed as a result.

Interest free season ticket loan

Travel costs can be eye-wateringly expensive. We can provide you with a season ticket loan once you've passed probation.

Holiday entitlement

Your holiday entitlement will be set out in your contract, and once you've worked with us for over 12 months, you'll also get a day off for your birthday.

Charity/Volunteering entitlement

We think people who volunteer their time for charitable causes deserve a little recognition. We give staff a "charity day" off for charitable work. We also give all staff an extra 'charity day' to be used supporting our partner charity – Young Westminster Foundation.

IPA Qualification Support

The Institute of Practitioners in Advertising run various qualifications throughout the year, both online and offline. We support our members of staff in obtaining these qualifications in every way we can.

Mental Health Support

We have a dedicated team of Mental Health First Aiders across our offices who are always on hand to support our people. We also have multiple external Mental Health resources that our employees have access to.

- + Flexible working based on core hours of 10am-4pm
- + Agile working including hotdesking and working from home opportunities
